Editorial

In spring this year in the UK after the big shifts of 2012 we decided to dedicate our Conference to New Beginnings. Interestingly this caused many people to look backwards at new beginnings in the past. DK tells us that looking back is a tendency when new energies come in. It was just one week before the passing of our founder Brenda Johnston so the gathering turned out to be preparation for a new beginning for us without her physical presence. Because of her passing and that of Ludger in the Czech Republic we entitled our autumn gathering 'Death the Great Adventure'. In this edition of the Journal we therefore seem to be exploring the death/birth pulse. "What we call the beginning is often the end, And to make an end is to make a beginning. The end is where we start from..."

It is a fine balance between the energies of life and death that holds our creation in being. Our whole healing practice is about balance; both inner balance and homeostasis. We marvelled at the balance with stones achieved by Adrian Gray on our Conference outing to Lyme Regis but we too witness miracles of physical balance with Esoteric Healing. DK has offered us an amazing tool.

We begin this Journal with an extract from Initiation Human and Solar, which explores the idea of balance and equilibrium and is also an indication of the type of life our much-respected sister and brother endeavoured to lead.

We have many tributes to and memories of Brenda. Judy Jacka has written about the Pulse of Life, Helen Frankland about death and Ioannis Psarras about the relationship of money to death.

We also have a section on new beginnings, especially with the INEH, related to our last UK Conference and in some of our contributions all these ideas synthesize together. Sometimes I look at all the articles that come in for each Journal and wonder what an earth I can make of them all. I then begin to see the synthesis and remember that we are indeed a group with a group soul resonating with the Ashram of Synthesis and how that moves us all ever forwards towards fulfilment of The Plan.

“Have patience. Endurance is one of the characteristics of the Ego. The Ego persists, knowing itself immortal. The personality becomes discouraged, knowing that time is short.”

The Great Invocation

From the point of Light within the Mind of God
Let Light stream forth into the minds of men,
Let Light descend on Earth.

From the point of Love within the heart of God
Let Love stream forth into the hearts of men,
May Christ return to Earth.

From the centre where the Will of God is known
Let purpose guide the little wills of men –
The purpose which the Masters know and serve.

From the centre which we call the race of men
Let the Plan of Love and Light work out
And may it seal the door where evil dwells.

Let Light and Love and Power restore the Plan on Earth.
